MEMBER EVENTS

A great discussion at last month's Capitol Hill ConFAB - Thanks to all those who participated

Various Capitol Hill Community Organizations teamed up last month for a group discussion at the Chamber's August member event.

Organizations such as the Broadway Improvement Area (BIA), Capitol Hill Community Council, Sustainable Capitol Hill, PPUNC and many more

came to talk about the work they do and answer questions about how to get more involved. It was a great discussion and a good way for different groups on Capitol Hill to work together to improve The Hill and our community.

Guests at the event suggested a webpage be created to feature different organizations on the Hill. As a result The Chamber created a "Community Organizations" page on our website. Community Organizations on Capitol Hill can submit descriptions to be approved and posted on the webpage by emailing Jessica@caphillchamber.org. Click here to visit the page including submissions from Capitol Hill Community Council, Capitol Hill Safety Coalition and Sustainable Capitol Hill.

food, friendly efficient staff in a fun environment. It's known for the great people watching, elaborate parties (Halloween being one of the biggest in the city), and their community service endeavors. The diversity of both the staff and clientele make it an interesting place to be and creates a really cool vibe.

Drinks are affordable and imaginative with two happy hours daily. The Broadway Grill has a very west coast variety of appetizers, large selections on main dishes, sandwiches and desserts. The specials change daily and the menu is revised seasonally. They consistently do a great job and it's demonstrated by their success.
